

ARTICLES OF ORGANIZATION

NorthEast Louisiana Amateur Radio Club

This organization shall be known as the NorthEast Louisiana Amateur Radio Club (NELARC) and its purpose shall be the advancement and enjoyment of amateur radio as a hobby and to promote the use of this hobby to serve mankind and the fellowship of persons with this interest in common.

The officers of this Club shall be a President, a Vice-President, and a Secretary/Treasurer. Two Directors will be appointed by the newly elected president, and up to two Board Advisors will be appointed by the Board, each for a one-year term. The three officers, together with the immediate past-President, Directors and Advisors shall serve as voting members of the Board of Directors. The President shall be the Chairman of the Board of Directors.

The President, acting as Chairman of the Board, and the Board shall conduct all business of the Club when the Club is not in official session.

The operating rules of the Club, including such items as dues, meetings, activities, duties of officers and members, shall be governed by the By-Laws that shall be adopted by the members at a regular meeting. By-Laws shall be adopted and subsequently amended, if necessary, by a two-thirds (2/3) majority vote of the voting members at any meeting of the Club.

This Club may be dissolved by a two-thirds (2/3) majority vote of the voting members at a special meeting called for this express purpose. Such meeting must be called not less than forty-five (45) days prior to the special meeting date by written notice to the membership at their last known address. Discussion of the proposed dissolution shall take place at the next scheduled meeting following the call for such special meeting.

These Articles of Organization for the NorthEast Louisiana Amateur Radio Club were duly adopted, as amended, by the resident members on this sixth day of June 2017.
